Dear Great Blue Lotus Yogi's and Yogini's,

It has been the most amazing journey for me here in Chico over the past 5 years and it is with regret that I inform you, my most inspiring students, that I will be moving away and closing Blue Lotus at the end of the year.

Everyone who has walked through the doors of Blue Lotus will forever be a part of the beautiful tapestry of my soul. It has been the greatest privilege of my life to be present to watch your souls unfold through the practice of yoga - thank you for sharing your life and growth with me.

Now it is my time to follow the direction of my Dharma, my life's purpose, which is leading me forward towards new challenges. There is an unrelenting energy - much like the knowing that brought me to Chico - calling me away.

If there is demand, I will return to Chico for retreats with my dedicated students so we will continue our journey together! If you would like to remain in contact with me, please become a fan of the Blue Lotus Facebook page, or sign up in the studio.

Blue Lotus Schedule:

The studio will maintain the schedule as posted through the month of November until December 2nd- with the posted closure the week of Thanksgiving, from November 21st-26th. I will post a modified class schedule on the Blue Lotus Facebook Page for the week of December 5th-9th, and I will continue to schedule privates, as I am able.

Serra will continue to share her expertise as the only provider of prenatal yoga in Chico; in addition to yoga with baby, childbirth preparation classes, and partner yoga classes through Sacred Beginnings- please email her at serra@sacredbeginnings.org for details.

Current/Ongoing Blue Lotus Students:

Up to 4 current regular students can share a one- hour private at $70. Please contact me as soon as possible if you would like a private session. If you would like to digitally record classes for your personal use only, please inform me prior to class; all those present must also consent.

Blue Lotus costs & refunds:

Students who have monthly-unlimited memberships that expire after December 2nd will be eligible for a pro-rated refund. Students with class series that are not used will also be eligible for a refund based on expiration date. Please contact me as soon as possible regarding refunds if you feel you are eligible. As of today, payment for all classes will be at the $12 drop in rate if you are not on a monthly, or class series plan. If you have questions please do not hesitate to email me at bluelotusyoga@gmail.com.

Thank you for your support over the past five years- I will miss you all! Blessings great souls, and much love!
